COVID-19

In the interests of protecting all staff and to minimise the spread of COVID-19 (Coronavirus) we have instructed our staff to work remotely effective from 18th March. This means that all Australian Wool Innovation / The Woolmark Company (AWI/TWC) offices will be closed from that date, or at least working on a roster system to reduce the amount of staff physically in any office. We are very confident in the technology the company has set up and mobility devices allow all functions of the business to continue and be reasonably unaffected.

Hello,

A little detail about the second webinar - Naturally Inspiring. We got a tremendous response in the first session last week with huge number of attendees from PAN India.

Request you to please pass on the Session 2 reminder mail to all design/textile students as well as faculties. Hoping for good number of registrations from your institute. Registration link is attached :)

23rd February 2021

Session Two: Panel Discussion on Sustainable fashion and the positive effects wool has on the environment

Time: 6.00pm - 6:45pm (IST)

Panel: Taran Chhabra, Chief Executive Officer, Neeman's; Basco Henriques, Founder, Bio Dye Pvt India Ltd and Shivani Thakur, Production and Export Advisor, Bhuttico Weavers Cooperative Society Ltd

Moderator: Padmaja Mohanty, Trade and Education Co-ordinator India, The Woolmark Company

Information: In this session, next generation designers will discuss their journey practising sustainable textile and design methods and the benefit wool has for their brand and their consumers' buying behaviours.

Introducing the Panelists –

Dr. Bosco Henriques

Director,
THE TECHNOLOGICAL INSTITUTE
OF TEXTILE & SCIENCES, BHIWANI

He is the co-founder/director of BioDye India Pvt. Ltd., since 2008, which is an Indian natural dyeing unit that uses the in-house developed technology to break the accepted paradigm which prescribed that natural dyes are dull, bleed, fade and yield only a few colours. This forced designer's to adapt their creations to accommodate that limitation. The technology developed by Dr. Bosco uses only alum and iron as mordants to yield bright yellows, vibrant reds, intense blues, jet blacks and the associated range of hues, tints and shades, on all natural substrates from Jute, linen and cotton to silk, wool and Pashmina . This breakthrough has enabled designers to choose colours that can give a wing to their creativity.

Taran Chhabra

Taran Chhabra is the founder and CEO of Neeman's that's disrupted the Indian footwear industry in a big way. Neeman's is the first Indian brand to introduce wool shoes in the market. Long before Taran made a niche for himself in the shoe segment, he was leading the corporate grind in major pharma and life sciences companies and was instrumental in their growth thanks to his business analytical skills.

His journey from a Business Analytics corporate leader to an Entrepreneur is laden with adventure, risk and self-discovery. www.neemans.com

Shivani Thakur

Director,
OF TEXTILE & SCIENCES, BHIWANI

Shivani Thakur, Advisor for Production and Exports for Bhuttico (Bhutti Weavers Cooperative Society Ltd.) has an experience for 22 years in the Indian Handloom sector, specially representing the largest wool consuming weavers society in India. Her knowledge has been in understanding the wool handloom weaving process, weaver's wellbeing, dealing with the supply chain, marketing of the products and bringing the weavers community's work to the forefront.

COVID-19

Australian Wool Innovation / The Woolmark Company (AWI/TWC) continues to monitor the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) situation closely and our staff in Sydney have now physically resumed work in the office. In the interests of protecting all staff and partners we work closely with, this may vary within other TWC global offices and is dependent on the Government and Public Health Authority in each country. We are very confident in the technology the company has set up and mobility devices allow all functions of the business to continue effectively for any offices on days they may be working remotely.

Dear Teachers,

We have successfully completed 3 webinars and we would like to thank you all for encouraging students to register in these as we have received tremendous response so far and we are happy that we were able to reach out to so many students across India.

Now I have been receiving mailers from many students asking about participation in WPC from many institutions, therefore I specifically want to grab your attention towards the 4th webinar (especially for the institutes who have registered for Woolmark Performance Challenge) because in this webinar we will talk about wool innovations which will give ideas to students, also we will do WPC briefing again, so all the students who want a first hand briefing from our side can attend this so that they will get clarity in detail.

- All the recordings of previous webinars conducted by Salewa, On brand and other international brands and speakers, for students interested in Woolmark Performance Challenge are available on WPC website - Webinars | Woolmark Performance Challenge (woolmarkchallenge.com) but you can access this only if you are registered the website as a student or a tutor.
- All wool industry related resources, information, links, fact sheets, courses are available on a newly developed section on our website. You can access these upon registration. Here is the link - Download the toolkit: Wool Resources | Woolmark
- This will take you to register for the celebration event which will have the WPC 2020 finalists interaction and winner announcement for WPC 2020. Students targeting WPC 2021 will get to see their works and understand this competition in a better level- Registration Mailer is attached.

Kindly forward this mail to all other faculties, all other campuses and all the students so that they can attend the session, learn about wool, prepare for WPC and make use of all the available resources.

COVID-19

Australian Wool Innovation / The Woolmark Company (AWI/TWC) continues to monitor the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) situation closely and our staff in Sydney have now physically resumed work in the office. In the interests of protecting all staff and partners we work closely with, this may vary within other TWC global offices and is dependent on the Government and Public Health Authority in each country. We are very confident in the technology the company has set up and mobility devices allow all functions of the business to continue effectively for any offices on days they may be working remotely.
